Also a large collection of small Oriental Rugs, comprising Anatolian, Karabagh, Hamadan, Shiraz, Daghestan, Cabistan, Moenul, Gendjes, Kizik, Senner, Sarabende, Cashmere and Kermanshah. Reductions range from $2.50 to $10, according to the value of the piece—and included are some very rare and beautiful rugs.

$2.00 to $90 each.

WE DIRECT attention to our splendid facilities for Cleaning and Repairing

Oriental Rugs and Carpets

If this class of work is properly done, it is a matter of economy—makes Rugs and Carpets wear much longer—restores them to their original color and softness.

For the past three years we have had the services of an Armenian expert, who repairs Rugs by hand so cleverly that you cannot detect the mended place. The cleaning and washing is done by an Oriental process which kills all germs, restores the natural colors, silky sheen and gloss.

We will be pleased to call and give you estimates on your Rugs and Carpets. Fourth floor—G st.

White Beds and Bedding

We are offering in connection with our special January sale several excellent values in White Enamelled Beds and Cribs, Mattresses, Box Springs and Pillows. The Beds and Cribs are this season's goods and the products of leading manufacturers; the Box Springs and Mattresses were made in our own factory, which is a guarantee of their superior construction; and the Pillows are filled with good, clean goose feathers and covered with German linen ticking.

Alexandria Gazette.

PUBLISHED DAILY AND TRI-WEEKLY AT GAZETTE BUILDING, 310 & 312 PRINCE STREET.

TO THE PEOPLE OF ALEXANDRIA.

The Washington Monument Association has purchased and paid for during the past year the Shooter's Hill property one of the most beautiful sites around our city. The association proposes to donate for park and play ground purposes about 25 acres of this property (including Fort Ellsworth), thus giving the city a useful and magnificent park. This park will be dedicated on the 30th of April, the one hundred and twentieth anniversary of Washington's first inauguration. It is proposed to have on this occasion one of the largest industrial, agricultural and military parades that has ever been held in northern Virginia, and during the week of April 26 to May 1 to invite all old Alexandrians and their children to join us in an "Old Home Coming Week." The president and vice president of the United States, the governor of this and other states. The District of Columbia commissioners and many other distinguished gentlemen are expected to attend and participate in the ceremonies.

The entire management of the dedication and parade will be under the control of the foremost citizens of Alexandria. All that is needed to make this occasion the greatest ever held in this city is that our business men and the public generally will contribute liberally to the funds necessary to carry out the project, and all are earnestly requested to make as liberal contributions as possible.

Contributions can be made through any member of the finance committee or members of the Washington Monument Association or its secretary. All contributions will be acknowledged in the Alexandria Gazette and the Sunday Times. Trusting that every citizen will feel it incumbent upon him or her to assist in this work and that a response at the earliest date possible will be made to these appeals. Respectfully,
A. J. WEDDERBURN,
Sec. Washington Monument Association.

REV. DR. THACKER.

Rev. Dr. J. E. Thacker entered last Sunday upon the tenth year of his pastorate with the Second Presbyterian Church in Norfolk. The services were highly appropriate to the occasion. The reports of the nine years' work of the pastor showed a marvelous growth along all lines of Christian endeavor and evidenced the loyalty of the church to their pastor. The total amount raised during this period is $87,000. Total number of members received into the church during the nine years, 424. In addition to the regular work at the Second Church the congregation conducts a Chinese Sunday school in the afternoon at the Fair grounds, a preaching service there at 8 p. m. Sundays and a prayer meeting every Thursday at 8 p. m. at the same place. This church has a representative in both the foreign and home mission fields and also provides for the support of a number of children in the Sate Presbyterian Orphan's Home. This wonderful advance in the work of the Second Presbyterian Church is due in a large measure to the earnest zeal and indefatigable labors of Dr. Thacker, who is "in and in season out of season."—[Norfolk Virginian.]

[Dr. Thacker was pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church in this city about ten years ago. He succeeded Rev. Dr. Theron H. Rice.]

WILL RENOUNCE TITLE?

A dispatch from Paris says: The Turin correspondent of the Petit Parisien says it has been remarked in Italy that the Duke of the Abruzzi is the only member of the royal family who has not visited Sicily and southern Italy since the earthquake, remaining at Turin in solitude. His absence from the scene of the disaster is all the stranger because he is a captain in the fleet which first rendered succor to the injured.

When the royal family met to consider the duke's engagement to Miss Katherine Elkins, no decision was reached. He was asked to wait until he was appointed a vice admiral, when a decision would be given. That time has now arrived, but an authorization to marry has not been given.

The duke is, therefore, determined not only to resign from the navy, but from the royal family, renouncing his titles and privileges, thus removing the obstacles to his marriage.

The king is reported to have refused his resignation from the navy, but the duke persists in his determination. It is reported that while the queen was attending the injured aboard the warship Regina Elena, a deputation of officers begged her intervention with the king for assent to the duke's marriage.

The queen is said to have replied that she could not personally give an opinion on such a delicate matter, but she would gladly convey the officers' request to the king.

The minister of marine has since placed these officers under strict arrest.
